

Douglas MacEwen
2013 Man of the Year
Little Utica United Methodist Church

The men of Little Utica United Methodist Church are pleased to honor, recognize and pay tribute to Douglas MacEwen, as our 2013 Man of the Year. This is the most fitting of Sundays, Father's Day, to honor Doug. He is a loving and devoted father of two beautiful daughters and husband to his dear Caroline. A good and loyal friend to all and supports the mission and pastors of his church. Doug is the first to praise others for their good works and always shares the credit of his own good works with others.

There is a time in the life of every church when we are able to stand back and reflect on those who serve the Lord and us. Doug is that man and has been that man for all the years he has attended Little Utica. Doug's quiet steady way is an example to us all in how to lead a group. He works diligently for his church and the Greater Kingdom of God. Never for personal gain, but for his deep felt need to serve Jesus. His willingness to put others first inspires us. The way he has worked as Board Chair, UMM member, Lay Speaker & Lay Teacher, Trustee, Mission Team Volunteer and on many, many other church projects humbles us. His ability to work and give of himself unselfishly is so worthy of our gratitude and respect. He has been my confidant and partner on so many worthwhile church projects. I am so very proud to call him friend and brother in Christ.

Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has blessed Doug with the gifts of teaching, leadership, knowledge, compassion and generosity. May He continue to bless Doug and his family for years to come.

With God's blessing always,

Donald R. Day, Sr.
Crossroads District Prayer Advocate UMM